First Baptist

The First Baptist Sunday School classes were taught as a group Sunday by the Rev. Venable and was enjoyed by all. He told us some very interesting customs of the people of other countries he had toured, especially Egypt. The morning service conducted by the Rev. Venable was enjoyed by all.

The Weight Rally was very successful and the Ladies in White at 7:30 was a huge success. Mrs. Maris Davis went home with the crown. The offering for the day was very good.

There will be a Lawn Party at the home of Miss Ruth Irvin at 7 p.m. Saturday, August 1 for the benefit of the First Baptist Usher Board. Let's all come out and support her.

Priddy Named Heart Chairman

Sumpter T. Priddy, Jr., o fAshland, Va., Executive Vice-President of the Virginia Retail Merchants Association, has accepted appointment as 1965 Virginia Heart Fund Chairman. The announcement was made today by Dr. Samuel M. McDaniel, Jr., of Norfolk, Virginia Heart Association President.

Priddy is a Past State President of the Virginia Junior Chamber of Commerce, and is the fifth State Heart Fund Chairman having previously served in that capacity. He was a member of the 1964 State Heart Fund Campaign Committee and an Area Campaign Chairman for Eastern Virginia.

BLIND GIRL ACTIVE

Braintree, Mass. — Thirteen-year-old Joan Hyland enjoys riding a bike, climbing trees and playing ball. The only thing that makes Joan's activities unusual is that she has been blind since birth. She talks freely about her blindness and says the only time she got into trouble was when she climbed on the school building's roof. "I wanted to see what it looked like," she said smiling.

Exciting Camp Week Worth

By Peggy Morris

"I give my pledge as an American to save and faithfully to defend from waste the natural resources of my country— its soil and minerals, its forests, waters and wildlife."

This conservation Pledge plainly but beautifully brings forth the ideas emphasized at State 4-H Conservation Camp at Camp Parrar, Virginia Beach the week of July the 13th through the 18th. The ideas of conservation were transplanted in the minds of 150 4-H club members from all over the state of Virginia who took part in this camp.

During the week the campers took part in four conservation group meeting led by men who were experts in their respective fields. The classes were as follows:

Forestry — led by Carl J. Holcomb an extension forester.

Wildlife— led by R. Franklin Dugan, a biologist for the Soil Conservation Service.

Soil and Water — led by E. W. Mundie, an extension agriculturist engineer and Insects and Rodents— led by John Amos an associate extension entomologist.

Besides conservation classes the campers enjoyed swimming, talent and variety shows and recreation. They also have four classes which they can choose from the following ones which are: Archery, camp fellowship, casting, Firearm Safety, Guys and Gals, Model Farm, Personal Symbols Count, Recreation Leadership, Basic 4-H Art and Living with Radiation. He is bringing some wonderful messages.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wingfield and Mary Ellen and Mrs. W. T. Gravely attended the Mrs. R. G. Autson, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Banton, Mrs. Grover Beasley and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bagby Monday.

Mrs. Curry Bailey, of Phenix, is spending a few days with Mrs. Emma Lemon.

Mrs. A. W. Covington, Mrs. Harry Randal and three children visited Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bagby Sunday afternoon.

Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Elder and children and Mr. Frank Gossom were dinner guests Sunday night of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Franklin and son.

Mrs. Grover Beasley and Miss Linda Grant visited Mrs. Beasley's daughter, Dorothy in Lynchburg a few days last week.

Charlie Bagby visited in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Torrence and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Banton Monday.

We wish to extend our sympathy to the Powell family in the loss of their mother, Mrs. Powell and family lived in our community at one time.

Hebron Church Revival Starts August Second

Our revival meeting begins Sunday, August 2nd. and will continue through Friday, August 7th. The services will begin each evening at 8 p.m. Rev. R. E. McDowell, of Brookneal, will be our guest minister. He received his education at the University of Richmond, and the Southern Seminary in Louisville, Ky. He is now pastor of the Falling River Baptist Church, Brookneal Va.

Rev. McDowell is a friendly minister and I am sure all of us will like his able messages. Also the opportunity of knowing him personally.

Our friends and neighbors are invited to attend the services and we welcome us in this revival.

The Hebron Choir, with Mrs. W. E. Boulware, Jr., director, will lead the song services.

Rocks

July 27— Everything has taken on new life since the wonderful rains.

A number from here went to Evergreen Sunday morning to hear Rev. R. Jay Stewart, who was guest speaker there.

Mr. and Mrs. Toby Inge and Phillip and Jimmie Ransom were the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey Sunday.

We were sorry to hear of the passing of Mrs. Mary Inge.

WE are sorry to hear of the illness of Mr. Walker O'Brien. We hope for him a speedy recovery.
